The sneer at Protection, under which the country has prospered grandly in the past, was to be expected of a doctringire who always lenores facts that rnn counter to his theory. Let it pass without further comment. But Mr. SCHURZ, in his new zeai as a critic of the restored Republican party, strikes blindly and wildly, overlooking the central and vital fact that the currency reform which he regards as essential to prosperity must wait upou fiscai reform. The first necessity is more revenue. the revenue of the Government must continue to be raised at the custom houses and in imposing duties on imports it is proposed to follow out the Republican economic idea-to so adjust the duties, on all schedules where It can be done, as to protect American industries and American labor. To stop deficits and put the Treasury once more ou a sound basis is the great object of Republican desire at this time. Only by this means can the Government be enabled to pay as it goes; only by this means can withdrawal of gold by the endiesschain process be prevented and the stability of the currency secured; only in

Bob Cook, of Beston, who was born is Americus, Ga, doesn't claim to he amphiblious, but he will walk on the water from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati. The distance is about 400 miles and a little hilly n spets, so some people say. A wage na spets, so some people say. A wager of $1,000 has been made that ha can't accomplish this feat within fifteen days. Cook was in the city yesterday on his way to New Oricana, where he will go into training on the surface of Lake

The shoes he wears are real water shoe four feet long, six inches wide and si ir feet iong, six inches wide thes deep, invented by himself. are fine on either side of them, and ther ara fina on the bottom. When he take as a step forward with one foot the fine close when he takes a step with the other foo the fins on the shoe remaining still as opened and farm resistance to the water preventing him from ellpping backward.
Cook will be followed down the Ohie by a launch and prace boat. He says he will win.
